PATENTS. American and Foreign Office.

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS WITH U. S. PATENT OFFICE, WASHINGTON.

No 22 State Street, Boston.

IN 1840 the subscriber was appointed by the Commissioner of Patents Agent of the U S Patent Office in accordance with the 10th Sec of Act of 1837.

Having relinquished the Agency for the transmission of Models and adopted a more expeditious mode of sending them to the Patent Office where by a patent may be procured about six weeks earlier, he continues to forward the same free of expense—to prepare Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all the necessary Papers and Drawings for Patents and to render advice on legal and scientific matters respecting the same. Patents secured in Europe and other countries.

By application at this office inventors are saved the time and expense of a journey to Washington and delay there as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. They also have the advantage of verbally explaining their inventions and of consulting in respect to them matters in general of paramount importance in order to obtain correct specifications and claims. The experience of sixteen years practice, an extensive collection of rare works, decisions &c on mechanical subjects, the Patent Laws, and patents of different countries collected at much expense during the long time this office has been established together with accounts here kept of inventions patented at Washington enable the subscriber to afford to inventors desirous of procuring Patents assistance and information which in other respects might be difficult of attainment.

R H EDDY, Solicitor of Patents.

WASHINGTON, JULY 21, 1849.—During the time I occupied the Office of Commissioner of Patents R H EDDY Esq, of Boston did business at the Patent Office as Solicitor for procuring Patents. There were few if any persons acting in that capacity who had so much business before the Patent Office and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skillful Patent Solicitors in the United States and have no hesitation in assuring Inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

The Wonder of the Age!

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION!

The Only Genuine and Original is the

NORTH AMERICAN ELECTRIC

WASHING FLUID,

For Washing in either Hard or Soft Water.

THIS is the only genuine article to be found in the world and possesses double the power of anything ever discovered for washing clothes at a trifling expense, doing away with washboards at once. In fact it seems to be the long sought philosopher's stone or universal solvent, seeming a magical preparation, its operation being of the most astonishing character. A common sized washing may be done with [illegible] of the Fluid in less than two hours. It softens and removes the dirt, leaving the articles of the most brilliant whiteness. It being as harmless in its operation as pure water, and clothes will wear much longer than when rubbed to pieces by the common method of washing.

This Fluid is a powerful agent to be used in all cases where soap is required, particularly for cleansing milk utensils, cleaning windows and paint, scouring floors; in short it is beyond a precedent as a universal in the washing world.

P S—All Colored Goods are rendered brighter by being washed in this Fluid, all Woolens are less liable to shrink and thereby rendered much softer than in the old way of washing.

None genuine unless the Labels contain their Signature.

The above article is warranted by the Manufacturers not to contain soda, lime, camphene, burning fluid, or acids of any kind, but to be purely an alkaline preparation of the most powerful character, possessing more than double the washing power of anything ever discovered, being perfectly harmless in vapor without possessing the caustic properties of the miserable articles which flood the market and in many instances disgust the people to that degree that they are unwilling to try a good article when it really is to be found. The proprietors only ask a fair trial of this article, and are perfectly willing to forfeit any amount for a single failure in any instance where it is used.

POLITICAL.

Address of the South Carolina Convention.

Having met to take counsel together and having agreed upon that course which we think it right and necessary to pursue we wish to lay before you the considerations by which we have been governed, with that frankness which our respect for you and our desire to merit your good opinion require.

We regard the position of the Southern States in this Confederacy as degraded and ruinous. The manifest tendency of those systematic aggressions which they have suffered for many years past, is to subvert the institution of Slavery. If those acts of hostile domination which have been rendered more insulting by mockery of language, under the term of a Compromise, were final in their nature and were to be followed by any further aggressions we should regard them as outrages to which sovereign States possessing the spirit of freedom ought never to submit. But these measures only form part of a system, gradually commenced, steadily carried forward, gathering strength from development, and proceeding with fatal momentum to its end. The end is the abolition of negro slavery in the Southern States and the lowering of the free white population of the south to the same level with that abject and miserable [illegible] which, already strong and dangerous, seems destined before very long to be the controlling power in the Northern States. We see no remedy and no safety for the South in the present Union. But we know that in this we differ from very many citizens of the other Southern States, spirited and intelligent, having the same interests and suffering under the same wrongs with ourselves, and who cherish the hope that the rights of the South may be vindicated and secured without dissolving the existing Confederacy. In this difference it does not become us to assume to dictate, and we hope to stand free from that charge. Up to this time the citizens of South Carolina, aware that the peculiarity of political position arising from past events rendered a certain reserve on their part prudent and proper, have studiously avoided everything which might look like assuming the lead in the defence of Southern Rights. They desired to act because they believed the safety and honor required action, but they hoped they might find lead in other States whom they might follow in defence of the common cause. When the ancient Commonwealth of Virginia, the proper leader of the South, declared her determination to resist at all hazards and to the last extremity the then unrestricted threatened, South Carolina with all alacrity stood ready to support Virginia in carrying out her high resolution. When Georgia—whose former resistance to Federal usurpation under her heroic statesman Troup gave promise of unflinching firmness in any contest in which she might engage—proclaimed her determination to make a stand for the rights of the South, South Carolina rejoiced at the prospect of rallying under the banner of Georgia. And when her young and gallant sister Mississippi proposed the wise measure of a Southern Convention for the purpose of devising to unite the Southern States in maintaining their constitutional rights and at the same time preserving if possible the existing Union, South Carolina cheerfully entered into the measure, and she has carried out the recommendation of the convention so assembled at the instance of Mississippi by providing for the election of Delegates to a Southern Congress, to whose meeting she still looks with anxious interest.

In all these proceedings we think that the citizens of South Carolina have evinced all proper anxiety to avoid the appearance of arrogance or dictation, to act in concert with the citizens of the other Southern States and to do nothing separately or precipitately. And now, strongly as we have expressed our belief that there is no hope for the South in the existing Union, we are prepared to give a trial fairly and in good faith to any effectual plan which may be proposed by any sister State of the South for obtaining redress for the past and security for the future without a dissolution of the existing Union, if there be a possibility of such a consummation.

But we find ourselves forced to consider the ulterior question what we are to do if we find that there is no reasonable hope of the cooperation of any other Southern State in any effectual plan of relief and the alternative is presented to us of submitting or acting by ourselves. And reluctant as we are to separate ourselves from our natural friends and allies we have made up our minds. We cannot submit. We know that South Carolina entered this Confederacy as a sovereign and independent State, and that having been wronged, she has the perfect right to withdraw from it. Her sons must exercise that right and meet the consequences. If no other State will join us in relieving ourselves from the wrongs already inflicted we see no hope in waiting for new outrages to arouse a higher spirit of resistance. The new outrages we are well convinced will come in due time, but we feel no assurance that the spirit of the vassal will rise in proportion to the indignities heaped upon his head. On the contrary we see that the South has already borne what it would not for a moment have submitted to ten years ago, and what the North would not then have ventured to perpetrate.—We are not willing to try the experiment how long it will be before our spirit is completely broken by gradually and continually yielding to slow and gradual but unceasing encroachments. And if the exercise of the right of secession is to be followed by the attempt on the part of the Government of this Confederacy to subjugate South Carolina, it is better that we should meet that attempt while we still have some spirit and some power of resistance left. If we are to submit to the condition of a conquered people, we think it less dishonorable not to do so until we have first been conquered. And if anything could add to the necessity which we believe exists for a withdrawal from the existing Union it would be the denial of the right of secession. For the denial of that right indicates of itself extreme danger. The right of secession has heretofore and in better days been regarded as unquestionable by all Southern politicians, with the exception of an inconsiderable number of consolidationists.—And if ever that right can be denied without arousing the whole South to sustain it, the South will be ripe for the most miserable fate which has ever befallen any people. It will then, as a permanent sectional minority, have no defence against the tyranny of a Government combining all the vices of the corruptest democracy and the most oppressive foreign despotism.

We know the consequences which will follow a failure in our effort to maintain our liberty. We see clearly that a triumphant exertion of the power of the Federal Government in subjugating a State, will vastly increase that power, and greatly accelerate the change, already far advanced, of our federative system into a consolidated central despotism. We see, also, that South Carolina will not suffer the consequences of this change alone, but that the rest of the Southern States must suffer in an equal degree. They will have no safeguard against the Central Government, strengthened by crushing opposition and rendered, by triumphant force, what our Northern enemies have long been endeavoring to make it by fraud and usurpation—the supreme government of a consolidated nation. The sovereignty of a Southern State cannot be destroyed without the loss of their sovereignty by all the others. We are aware of the responsibility of doing an act which may lead to these consequences. We feel the respect which we owe to States having a common interest, threatened by a common danger but not equally persuaded with ourselves of the necessity of action. A [illegible] would induce us to take [illegible] the [illegible] currence a course which is to involve them in its consequences [illegible] through conviction of the necessity which urges [illegible] of our right to do so.

Address [illegible] Southern States [illegible] claimed to maintain the rights of the South [illegible] deem it to be necessary to argue about the right of secession. We hold it to be the great State right without which all others are nugatory and incapable of being enforced [illegible] your position assures us that your faith cannot be different from ours.

Nor can we regard it as necessary now further to discuss the wrongs which have been inflicted on the Southern States. They may be denied by those who shut their eyes to them, but you do not belong to that class. Southern and States Rights men may differ as to the [illegible] of exercising the right of secession at a particular time on account of those [illegible] But as certainly as the right exists each State [illegible] possess the right of judging for herself as to the occasion and time for its exercise. If South Carolina decides that honor and safety require her to secede she has the right to leave the Confederacy peaceably and without [illegible] If the act of secession is not permitted to be peaceable it will be from usurpation of power by the Federal Government not [illegible] the nature of the act performed by South Carolina. [illegible] as well have been [illegible] of the Constitution [illegible] of the rights of the Southern States, by the Federal Government we have to look forward to the [illegible] of another outrage by the Government [illegible] attempt to force the State to remain [illegible] We suppose the attempt will be made [illegible] the other Southern States permit. The [illegible] States must decide for themselves whether [illegible] permit. South Carolina must decide for herself whether it is necessary to [illegible] Her sister States [illegible] right to complain that she [illegible] position where they must [illegible] prevent her subjugation or by consenting [illegible] abandon their own [illegible] themselves [illegible] South Carolina [illegible] act which all southern men who believe in the existence of State Rights at all must admit that she has a perfect right to do [illegible] regards as absolutely necessary [illegible] as she would have to act [illegible] Southern States [illegible] are the only object of aggression by the North [illegible] the Federal Government [illegible] is to [illegible] for the usurpations which [illegible] may be committed [illegible] And for her sister States of the South to [illegible] to refrain from the exercise of right which she regards as indispensable for self preservation would be [illegible] of a far different character from any [illegible] she can be [illegible] towards them [illegible] equals [illegible] the South [illegible] no constraint [illegible] themselves in a position of [illegible] would come from [illegible] of the Federal Government not of South Carolina [illegible] they should insist upon their right [illegible] exercise [illegible] right and submitting to [illegible] tolerable [illegible] would make themselves parties [illegible] Federal Government [illegible] upon a sovereign [illegible]

We [illegible] necessary [illegible] South Carolina [illegible] which we have [illegible] may be [illegible] We [illegible] the [illegible] address [illegible] be somehow [illegible] of the assembling of a Southern Congress to devise measures of redress and [illegible] some of the injured States may unite. We have heretofore been willing to [illegible] much for Southern [illegible] We [illegible] to [illegible] but to follow [illegible] our common [illegible] safety and [illegible] your carrying [illegible] most deeply [illegible] the [illegible] with whom we have [illegible] concert [illegible] we have not acted heretofore [illegible] and that [illegible] termination [illegible] abandonment of [illegible] submission appears to us [illegible] worthy of [illegible] the gloomy prospect of inevitable ruin to follow submission appears to us more formidable than any dangers to be encountered in contending alone against whatever odds for our rights—We have come to the [illegible] to [illegible] that if it be our fate to be left alone in the struggle [illegible] we must [illegible] by [illegible]

The following are the resolutions [illegible] this body [illegible] as [illegible] heretofore been furnished [illegible]

Resolved That the opinion of this meeting [illegible] the State of South Carolina cannot submit to the wrongs and aggressions [illegible] perpetrated by the Federal Government and the Northern States without [illegible] and that it is necessary to relieve herself therefrom with or without the cooperation of other Southern States.

Resolved That concert of action [illegible] more of our sister States of the South through the proposed Southern Congress or any other manner is an object worthy [illegible] sacrifices but not the sacrifice involved in submission.

Resolved, That we hold the right of secession to be essential to the sovereignty and freedom of the States of this Confederacy and that the denial of that right would furnish to an injured State the strongest additional cause for its exercise.

Resolved, That this meeting looks with confidence and hope to the Convention of the People to exert the sovereign power of the State in defence of its rights, at the earliest practicable period and in the most effectual manner, and to the Legislature, to adopt the most speedy and effectual measures towards the same end.

Educate your Daughters.

A writer says —When I lived among the Choctaw Indians I held a consultation with one of their chiefs respecting the successive stages of their progress in the arts of civilized life, and among other things he informed me that at their first start they fell into a great mistake—they only sent their boys to school.

They became intelligent men but they married uneducated and unt[illegible] wives and the uniform result was that the children were all like their mother and soon the father lost his interest in both wife and children, and now says he, if we could educate only one class of our children, we should choose the girls, for when they become mothers they would educate their sons. This is to the point, and it is true. No nation can become fully and permanently civilized and enlightened when the mothers are not, to a good degree, qualified to discharge the duties of home education.

Letter from Mr Webster.

The following is Mr Webster's reply to the New York committee inviting him to address the people of New York

Washington May 9.

Gentlemen—I have received your communication by the hands of Mr Williams and I acknowledge myself overwhelmed by this new proof of regard from the city of New York. An invitation to visit that city from so many thousands of its friends of the Union without distinction of party, is much [illegible] exceeds my expectation.

I have read the names and as you suggest may be probably many of them are known to me and I know them to be men of high honor and character, of business and industry, of great stakes in the country and active supporters and props of all the institutions of benevolence and charity, morality and religion, literature and science, which adorn the great commercial metropolis of the United States.

Gentlemen, I have no wish to appear in public for purposes of ceremony or entertainment, nor can I say that I feel the necessity of any occasion at present to express my sentiments in regard to public affairs. All that I think, and all that I feel, on the great topics of the hour is concealed from nobody. But notwithstanding all this and notwithstanding that my public duties are likely to demand my attention and care imperatively for some weeks to come, I yet cannot persuade myself to say that I may not at no distant time make an effort to meet my friends in New York.

One thing gentlemen is certain. If I address you at any time you will hear no change of tone, nor any faltering, no cold support of that cause which is dear to your hearts and to mine.

With grateful and profound respect and regard I remain gentlemen

Your friend and obliged humble servant,

DANL WEBSTER.

Liverpool May 2

During all the present week the market has remained dull and with a continual tendency to decline in prices. The advices per Baltic [illegible] which were received on Tuesday bringing considerably [illegible] rates [illegible] scale [illegible] the crop have shaken the confidence of holders and have induced a pressure to sell cotton accompanied by a material decline in prices.—The trade [illegible] to their former policy have purchased sparingly and the total sales have been 29,070 bales. The demand has somewhat more general. Several parties have made [illegible] purchases on speculation but up to [illegible] depressed by any advance.

[illegible] 6000 bales including 1000 taken on speculation for export. American descriptions are very dull of sale, and they have again declined from ⅛ to ⅛d per lb. The authorized quotations of fair qualities being uniformly reduced ⅛d per lb. The past month has been under the influence of large receipts, increasing estimates of the crop then becoming current in the ports of the United States.

These exercised a corresponding influence upon prices here and the same cause seconded by a somewhat dull state of general trade have concurred in limiting the demand for cotton during the whole of April. The trade are rigidly confining their purchases to the supply of their present wants. The home consumption is generally maintained and the stocks of manufacturers are not large, but the prices obtainable are not generally remunerative and there is an absence of that commercial activity which has usually attended the transactions of the present season. Much advantage is confidently anticipated from the favorable and exciting influence of the exhibition now opened in London.

DISASTER.

The Eagle Walker, arrived at Greenock April 23rd from N Y was in contact at 2 A M off Corsewall Point with the Henry Donald from Troon to Dublin, which lost cutwater and jib boom but did not make any water. The Lucile from Cette on shore on the Assombe Bank April 7th, with 7 feet water in her hold.

The Garrick at Liverpool on 29th April at 11 P M during a thick snow storm Tuscan bearing west about 20 miles was in contact with the St George of Port Glasgow from Liverpool for Boston which lost foremast, larboard, bulwarks &c, laid by her all night and replaced her captain and crew who had got on board the Garrick. The Garrick lost jib guys, jibboom, head rail &c cutwater torn up and ship sides badly cut. The St George did not make any water and intended steering for Queenstown or Waterford.

SECOND DESPATCH.

Parliament assembled on the 28th.

On the day following there was a protracted demonstration formidable as to numbers at Drury Lane Theatre and on the same day at Liverpool an anti Papal palaver for four hours duration.

The Liverpool Journal pronounces the protectionist demonstration a failure.

The Jewish disability bill on the second reading was carried by a majority of 25.

A very important state paper, says the European Times has been given to the world during the last few days which has necessarily attracted much attention. It is a lengthy communication addressed by the Earl of Clarendon, the present Lord Lieutenant of Ireland to the Earl of Shrewsbury, the Catholic Peer and it embraces nearly all the topics connected with the education question in the sister country and the establishment of Roman Catholic hierarchy in England.

He points out to his noble correspondent the deep and bitter disappointment he has experienced at the conduct of Ultra Montane party in Ireland supported by the Papal Court in opposing the Queen's colleges formed by Sir Robert Peel in the best spirit for the praiseworthy purpose of abolishing if possible the sectarian animosities and hatreds that have been the bane of the sister Kingdom, and he shows that the same spirit is at work there to uproot the national system of education which is now giving the advantages of a good secular and religious education to half a million of poor children of all creeds who without such aid would be wallowing in ignorance and crime. Lord Clarendon proves that all the efforts of the Irish government of recent years to mitigate sectarian animosities by means of mixed education promoted by the State have been foiled by the ultra party in Rome and in Ireland, and after graphically portraying the evils of the present state of things his Lordship speaks most despondingly of the future. The same paper notices the circular issued by the United States having reference to valuation of goods for duty and addressed to Consuls and commercial agents says the government of the U S, however correct may be the reformation in its possession [illegible] commit [illegible] injustice by acting as its own appraiser.

The rush across the Atlantic continues with unabated vigor. A Nenagh paper states that the once populous district of Thurles and various other parts of Tipperary appear to be almost totally deserted. A letter from Waterford mentions that fifteen emigrant ships [illegible] fully with [illegible] 5000 souls left that port for America on the 2[illegible] ult and on the 24th another large vessel also laden with emigrants sailed for the same destination. The accounts from the West are even more startling. A magistrate and land owner in the county of Mayo speaks in terms of the utmost alarm at the prospect of the country being left without sufficient hands to till the ground.

From Westport and Castlebar shop keepers, farmers and able bodied laborers are flying, as if from the plague. The [illegible] Herald referring to the movement in the county of Galway says if the [illegible] emigration proceeds with the rapidity which has marked its progress during the past spring, this province bids fair to become a wilderness.

The steamship Atlantic is expected to be ready for sea in July.

A line of three iron screw steamships is about being established to ply between this port and the Brazils. The line will be in part owned and managed by Messrs McKean McLarey & Co.

A serious accident on the railway between Chester and Manchester which resulted in the loss of [illegible] lives and forty wounded occurred on the 1st inst. A great aggregate meeting of the Catholics had been held in Dublin on the [illegible] It was one of the most influential meetings held there for many years [illegible] assemblage of the professional, the middle and operative class could be so deemed. The platform to which the admission was regulated by paid tickets was crowded by representatives [illegible] exclusively belonging to the liberal and professional [illegible] to the Roman Catholic clergy, although the whole of the Roman Catholic prelates signed the requisition and thereby sanctioned the proceedings none of them were present on the occasion and no active part in the proceedings was taken by the Roman Catholic Clergy.

FRANCE

Affairs in Paris are very unsatisfactory. The Ministry appears to be in daily fear of a break up from internal discord. The proceedings of the Assembly are without interest. Incendiary bulletins are being issued by the committee of resistance. There is a rumor that Leon Faucher has resigned. The government have resolved to withdraw the demand for allowance of pay due to Jerome Bonaparte as a General in the French army. The President is charged with ulterior views respecting the presidency, that he entertains the hope of dissolving the Assembly in hopes of a new election in 1852, returning a body of men favorable to his interest.

The funds still continue to decline.

SPAIN

The Spanish Minister of Foreign Affairs has assured Lord Howden that Spain will not interfere in the affairs of Portugal, excepting in case of extreme danger to the monarchy.

The elections were proceeding to choose the ministry. All Narvaez candidates defeated.

PORTUGAL

Accounts have been received via Spain that the garrison of Oporto rose on the 24th ult in consequence of the arrest of a number of officers and soldiers and declared for Marshal Saldanha after a combat of two hours.

The General after having remained incognito in the city had taken the route Vigo to embark in an English ship and was recalled by the insurgents. The inhabitants of Oporto have declared for the insurrection.

GERMANY

The Emperor of Austria intended visiting Lemburg about the 10th of April to have an interview with the Czar on the frontier.

It is stated that the most intimate relations subsist between the Austrian and French governments. A letter from Berlin of the 25th ult states that M de Nesselrode has in the name of the Emperor of Russia transmitted to the Austrian Ministry for foreign affairs a new note on this subject couched in still stronger terms than his former representation.

THE PILES!

A CURE FOR LIFE SECURED!

DR. UPHAM'S INTERNAL REMEDY FOR THE CURE OF PILES!

THE VEGETABLE PILE ELECTUARY, Invented by Dr. A. Upham, a distinguished physician of New York city, is the only really successful remedy for that dangerous and distressing complaint the Piles, ever offered to the American public.

The Electuary contains no Mineral Medicine, no Aloes, Colocynth, Gamboge, or other powerful and irritating purgative. No fear of taking cold while under its influence; no change in diet necessary. If taken according to directions a cure for life is guaranteed.

Another certificate added to the hundreds that have already been received of the efficacy of Dr. Upham's Electuary.

New York, August 20, 1846.

Messrs. Wyatt & Ketcham—Gents: For several years past I have been troubled with piles, a very costive state of the bowels, indigestion and weakness of the system. But my complaint not being so severe as to disable me from business, and a dread I had of physicians and patent medicines, that until this Spring I never used any medicine or applied to a physician for relief. The Piles being then so severe that I allowed an operation to be performed, without any benefit. Determined after this to try other means, I read an advertisement of a cure guaranteed by the use of Dr. Upham's Electuary. I purchased three boxes at your store, and five boxes of which I found myself entirely cured of the Piles and my health much improved. I remain sirs, your much obliged friend.

The writer of the above, from motives of delicacy, declines having his name used, but authorizes us to refer to him, or show the original certificate to those who may doubt its authenticity.

Another fact in relation to the efficacy of Dr. Upham's Electuary.

PITTSFIELD, Sept. 9, 1846.

Dr. Upham—Dear Sir: About two years ago I was afflicted with what was called Chronic Dysentery. I have suffered with it ever since, and physicians have told me that my liver was affected, and that my bowels were ulcerated, for blood and pus attended with a peculiarly putrid smell were the frequent discharges. A short time since I made a visit to Massachusetts, in hopes of benefit from a change of air, but suffered more severely than ever before. While there a physician offered to cure me for $40, in three months.—Happily, in the midst of intense pain, occasionally relieved by laudanum, I saw in a wrapper of your Electuary a perfect description of my complaint, together with many certificates of cures. This gave me great confidence in the medicine, and I purchased a box, and nine doses of which has apparently cured me, and I am prepared to say every thing in its favor, or render any service I can to humanity by subscribing to its merits.

Respectfully yours, BENJAMIN PERCIVAL,

THE

GENUINE BALM OF COLUMBIA.

IF you wish a rich, luxuriant head of hair, free from dandruff and scurf, do not fail to procure the genuine Balm of Columbia. In cases of baldness, it will more than exceed your expectations. Many who have lost their hair for twenty years, have had it restored to its original perfection by the use of this balm. Age, state, or condition appears to be no obstacle whatever; it also causes the fluid to flow with which the delicate hair tubes are filled, by which means thousands (whose hair was grey as the Asiatic eagle) have had their hair restored to its natural color by this invaluable remedy. In all cases of fever it will be found the most pleasant wash that can be used. A few applications only are necessary to keep the hair from falling out. It strengthens the roots, it never fails to impart a rich glossy appearance, and as a perfume for the toilet it is unequalled. It holds three times as much as other miscellaneous hair restoratives, and is more effectual.

☞ Caution.—Never buy it unless you find the name of Comstock & Co., proprietors, on the wrapper of each bottle, or you are cheated with a counterfeit article.

BRANT'S

PURIFYING EXTRACT

The Greatest

BLOOD PURIFIER

IN THE WHOLE WORLD!

☞ Price $1 per Bottle, or Six Bottles for $5.

It is now put up in QUART BOTTLES, of the same power and medical efficacy as when in small bottles. Each Large bottle contains SIXTY-FOUR DOSES, and the medications are so Strongly Concentrated that only One Tablespoonful is required at a Dose—three times a day—thus one bottle lasts Twenty-One Days, which is much longer than a bottle of any other medicine lasts, because there is required of this a less quantity at a dose.

The great superiority of this Blood Purifier over all other medicines, consists in a great measure in its possessing as a part of its compound, the powerful Medical Virtues of some Scarce and Rare which no other medicine possesses. These are the most certain Purifiers of the Blood that were ever known to either Indian or white man, and these being compounded with the strongly concentrated Extracts of

Indian Roots and Barks,

Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock,

CHERRY AND SASSAFRAS BARKS,

make this Vegetable Extract, not only the greatest Blood Purifier, but also, a cheaper medicine by great odds than any other. It is cheaper, because the quantity of it that may be bought for One Dollar will last much longer, and will cure Ten Times more Blood-disease, than One Dollar's worth of any other medicine.

☞ For undoubted proof of the Cures of

Scrofula, Fever-Sores,

Scald-Head, Erysipelas, Salt-Rheum, Rheumatism, Syphilis, Eruptions, Pimples on the Face, Liver-Complaints, Piles, Lumbago, Cancerous Ulcers, Costiveness, Sore Eyes, Dyspepsia, Pains in the Side, Breast, Bones, and Joints, and ALL OTHER IMPURE-BLOOD DISEASES, see our PAMPHLETS and Handbills—every Agent has them to give away.

ELEGANT AND INVALUABLE

Articles for the Toilet.

Bogle's Hyperion Fluid,

For Restoring, Preserving, and Beautifying the HAIR.

The following Certificate, from Dr. Winslow Lewis, one of the most eminent physicians of Boston, will show the estimation in which it is held by the scientific and learned, being one only of many similar ones.

BOSTON, Feb. 15, 1847.

Mr. Wm. Bogle,—Sir: The preparation invented by you for the hair, has been extensively used by my family, and they give it the decided preference over all other compositions of the kind. It preserves and beautifies the hair, and cleans the skin, and its qualities, without producing any ultimate deleterious effects, which are too frequently the result of many well known patented compounds.

WINSLOW LEWIS.

It is an indispensable article for the Ladies, as it keeps the hair in place and curl, and the skin of the head free from dandruff and scurf. Furthermore, it lays the foundation of a good head of hair.

BOGLE'S AMOLE,

A COMPOUND FOR SHAVING.

This delightful article is totally different and superior to anything yet invented for shaving. The basis of it is derived from the Amole, or soap plant of California, an article used by the natives of that country for washing; and thus, the use of strong alkali, so hurtful to the skin, is avoided. Its detergent and detergent properties have the finest and most nourishing effects on the skin—it soothes and allays irritation, and has a fine, thick, creamy lather, which does not dry on the face. It is a decided luxury to be shaved with this incomparable soap. It is elegantly put up, calculated alike for the "rough and ready" traveller, or the toilet of the most fastidious connoisseur.

Bogle's Hebeaiona,

FOR REFRESHING AND BEAUTIFYING THE COMPLEXION.

Eradicating Tans, Pimples, and other eruptions of the skin, and rendering it fair, delicate and blooming. It is equally efficacious in protecting the skin from the hot sun of summer, and freezing blasts of winter, and is the most fragrant and delicious article to be found at the toilet of fashion.

All the above articles have stood the test of the strictest investigation, and are warranted superior to anything yet invented; but, if not found so, return them on trial, the money, in all cases, will be refunded by my Agents.

WILLIAM BOGLE, Proprietor.

KITCHEN & HENDERSON'S

HAIR PRESERVATIVE.

THIS article has been before the public nearly two years, and the proprietor is prepared to say that for REMOVING DANDRUFF from the scalp,

RESTORING HAIR, WHERE FALLEN OFF TEMPORARILY, and giving it a BEAUTIFUL SOFTNESS AND GLOSS, CANNOT BE EXCELLED. The basis of this Preservative is a pure vegetable Oil, extracted from a plant found growing luxuriantly in the Western States, and which possesses, in a remarkable degree, the essential properties requisite for REPRODUCING AND BEAUTIFYING THE HAIR, by acting upon and reviving its glands or roots.—Those who faithfully apply this Preservative, will be surprised at finding how it life like and glossy it renders the Hair, while it clears the scalp of scurf or dandruff, and affords the most agreeable sensations. It has already been extensively used, and in every instance has given perfect satisfaction.

REASONS FOR USING THIS PRESERVATIVE.

1. It is a very pretty, CLEAN article, and has an agreeable perfume.
2. It is put up in a very convenient form, and at a very reasonable price.
3. Acting as a stimulant, it affords relief to the Headache.
4. It gives to hard brashy Hair a desirable texture and softness.
5. It promptly arrests the falling off of the Hair where that evil has commenced, and promotes the growth of new Hair. In fine, it does all for Hair that any preparation for restoring or fixing this ornament of the head can possibly do.
